NEWS

On April 15, 1947, Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier and made his historic Major League Baseball (MLB) debut with the Brooklyn Dodgers. Since 2004, MLB celebrates "Jackie Robinson Day", honoring his legacy and contributions to breaking down racial barriers in professional sports on April 15. Since 2009, MLB requests players and on-field personnel wear his No. 42 during games on this day.
